facts. The Company's expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith and are believed to have a reasonable basis. However, each such forward-looking statement involves uncertainties and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the following important factors, among others, that could cause the actual results of the Company to differ materially from those projected in such forward-looking statements: (i) prevailing state and federal governmental policies and regulatory actions, including those of the Oregon Public Utility Commission and the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, with respect to allowed rates of return, industry and rate structure, purchased gas and investment recovery, acquisitions and dispositions of assets and facilities, operation and construction of plant facilities, the maintenance of pipeline integrity, present or prospective wholesale and retail competition, changes in tax laws and policies and changes in and compliance with environmental and safety laws, regulations and policies; (ii) weather conditions and other natural phenomena; (iii) unanticipated population growth or decline, and changes in market demand and demographic patterns; (iv) competition for retail and wholesale customers; (v) pricing of natural gas relative to other energy sources; (vi) risks resulting from uninsured property damage to Company property, intentional or otherwise; (vii) unanticipated changes in interest or foreign currency exchange rates or in rates of inflation; (viii) economic factors that could cause a severe downturn in certain key industries, thus affecting demand for natural gas; (ix) unanticipated changes in operating expenses and capital expenditures; (x) unanticipated changes in future liabilities relating to employee benefit plans; (xi) capital market conditions, including their effect on pension costs; (xii) competition for new energy development opportunities; (xiii) potential inability to obtain permits, rights of way, easements or other necessary authority to construct pipelines or other system expansions; and (xiv) legal and administrative proceedings and settlements. All subsequent forward-looking statements, whether written or oral and whether made by or on behalf of the Company, also are expressly qualified by these cautionary statements.

Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. New factors emerge from time to time and it is not possible for the Company to predict all such factors, nor can it assess the impact of each such factor or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement.
